Artists' Lottery Syndicate

4th Quarterly Report
for period 1 April – 30 June 2011

The Artists' Lottery Syndicate has entered into a further 39 draws over the 13 weeks of the final quarter, purchasing 36 lines for each weekly EuroMillions draw and 44 lines for both the Wednesday and Saturday UK Lotto draws.

The total cost of lottery tickets for this period has been £2,080.00

The Artists' Lottery Syndicate has had 9 winning lines during this period, spread over 6 of the 39 draws (3 EuroMillions and 3 Lotto). Individual prizes have ranged from £6.10 - £41.00. The second largest prize haul of the whole year (totalling £112.50) took place on the EuroMillions draw on Friday 29 April (see the full list of winning lines below). No further prizes were won on the EuroMillions following the rule changes of 12 May 2011 (which unfairly reduced odds by introducing two additional 'lucky star' numbers).

The total winnings for this period is £167.20

This equates to a total return for each of the 40 members of the Artists' Lottery Syndicate of £4.18
